

Jane Lopoten School of Dance

526 N. Broad St., Lansdale, Pa.

Limited spaces are available
in our 2019/20 scholarship dance program for children and teens with Down Syndrome

Our program is growing, and we are accepting more students for the next school year!

Classes are on Wed., Saturday afternoons and Friday evenings Prospective students, aged 5 - 18,
must be evaluated for class placement.

This is a TUITION FREE SCHOLARSHIP program!
You will be responsible for costume and recital fees only.

“LET’S DANCE!”

Jump for Joy classes include creative movement, ballet, jazz/hip hop technique, stretching, balance/stability and coordination exercises. Studio owner Jane Lopoten, and instructor Kristine Izak co-direct the program, assisted by student teachers. Our spacious air conditioned studio's are equipped with "DANCE CAM" so you can watch your child's class on t.v. from our comfortable waiting area! Class attire: Comfortable clothes that do not inhibit movement. Traditional dance leotards/tights and ballet or jazz shoes are encouraged. A parent or guardian may be required in the studio during class for some levels.

Contact: Program Co-Director & Instructor
Jane Lopoten - jlopoten@gmail.com
215-361-2345

& visit janelopotendance.com for more studio information